> Accident to a Boy .- On Saturday afternoon a number of boys were playing on the sidewalk opposite Blake's block, when one of their number, a son of Mr. Evans, a shoemaker residing on Kentucky Avenue, ran up to the second story window, got out and jumped to the pavemen below. His back was broken, and he was otherwise seriously bruised. He was carried to the office of Dr. H. F. Barnes, where surgical aid was afforded. The boy is ten years old. He is in a critical condition. This should be a warning to boys not to play Sam Patch on the paved streets and sidewalks.

COMPLIMENTARY BENEFIT .- The engagement of the Webb Sisters closed on Saturday night, and with the termination of their engagement Metropolitan Hall was closed for the season. The versatile talents of the young ladies have made them very popular here, and quite a num ber of their friends among our leading citizens wanted to tender them a complimentary benefit The proprietor of the Metropolitan has consented to the use of the hall, and the company will give their assistance for the occasion. Tuesday (to-morrow) evening has been fixed upon, and a selection of choice pieces arranged. We expect to see the hall crowded, in paying a merited compliment to the charming young ladies who have exerted themselves to please their patrons, and who have succeeded so well, those who listen to their sweet songs and witness their lively and fascinating acting will certainly be the gainers The office, we presume, will be open on the morning of Tuesday, that those who desire to do so can secure seats.

THE FOURTH IN THE CITY .- An unusual quiet pervaded the city on Friday. It would have passed for a Sabbath day had it not been for the wegian Consuls of Chicago participated in the occasional banging of fire arms and souibbing of crackers by the boys on the streets. Amusements were plentiful outside the city limits and a great portion of our people were absent. One train from the Madison road brought up a party of excursionists, but they were not a drop in the great ocean of those who had left for other scenes. By far the largest crowd went to Cin cinnati over the two routes-the Madison route by rail and water and the Lawrenceburg all rail -and they all concur in one fact, that they enjoyed themselves hugely.
